“8th Annual Partnering for Progress: Making a Difference in the Life of Children with Special Needs”

The Ohio Coalition for the Education of Children with Disabilities (OCECD) is partnering with its member organizations this year to provide the “8th Annual Partnering for Progress: Making a Difference in the Life of Children with Special Needs” conference in Columbus, Ohio.

The featured speaker is Rick Lavoie, a teacher, administrator, consultant and national speaker. He is best known for his videos "How Difficult Can This Be?: The F.A.T. City Workshop" and "Last one Picked, First One Picked On: The Social Implications of Learning Disabilities". His newest video and DVD is "When the Chips are Down". His new books "The Motivational Breakthrough: 6 Secrets to Turning on the Tuned Out Child" and "It's So Much Work to Be Your Friend: Helping the Child with Learning Disabilities Find Social Success" are available at your local bookstore, at Amazon.com, pbs.org or by calling 800-344-3337.

This one-day event will offer informative sessions for parents, educators and others. There are morning and afternoon breakout sessions from which to choose. The conference is being held at the Crowne Plaza Columbus North, 6500 Doubletree Ave., Columbus, OH 43229 (Formerly the Marriott North).

The conference is free and parking is free. Lunch will be provided free.
We hope to see you there!

Registration will open online on October 12, 2010 at www.ocecd.org. From the home page, click on Conferences and follow the prompts to register. Registration ends November 15, 2010. For more information contact Connie Hudson, OCECD Conference Coordinator, at 1-937-842-2150 or email her at ocecdcs@embarqmail.com.
